FROM MAIDEN TRIP.

New Sch. Athlete Arrives with Fine Salt Cod Fare.

Sch. Blanche Also Has Nice Trip of Salt Bank Cod.

The new sch. Athlete, Capt. Leroy Spinney, arrived this morning from her maiden trip, salt banking, with a fine fare of 260,000 pounds of salt cod. As last year, Capt. Spinney found fine fishing on caplin in the vicinity of Greenly island on the Labrador coast and made the most of it. He and his crew like their new vessel very much.

Sch. Blanche, Capt. William H. Goodwin, also arrived this morning from a salt banking trip with a good fare of 240,000 pounds of salt cod.

IN NORTH BAY.

Medium Mackerel Now Reported To Be Schooling Freely.

There seems to be no doubt but what medium mackerel are schooling freely. Two fishermen who left Rustico, N. S., a week ago yesterday and came to this city yesterday reported that the medium mackerel were schooling freely in from two to 20 fathoms of water. Another fisherman from the same place, who left home Tuesday and arrived in this city yesterday reported that the mackerel were still schooling freely when he left off Rustico and Tracadie. The men came here to ship in a vessel going to the Bay, as they believe that there will be great fishing there. They shipped with Capt. Anson Leeman in sch. Grayling.
